PREFACE

This Directory is intended to provide general information about services and programs that can help pregnant women and children. It is a resource for county agencies and health care providers who work with pregnant women and families.

The Directory is intended to provide information on key points of entry or referral into the different types of services, and is not intended to be a stand-alone compendium of all services or providers. There are many other program descriptions, service directories, and hotlines that provide more detailed information on eligibility, covered services, and available providers.

The Directory is not intended to advise about a specific person's eligibility for any program or service, or to provide legal advice. Eligibility for many of the services and programs described in this Directory depends on a number of factors, such as level of income and assets and compliance with program requirements. An attorney should be contacted for legal advice.

The Directory is provided by the Department of Health Services in response to a requirement in Wisconsin Stats. s.253.10(3)(d).

HOW TO USE THIS DIRECTORY

1. Look at the Key to Types of Services Listed in the Directory (page 1) for descriptions of the types of services that are included in this Directory. Services are listed by county. In addition, adoption services and family planning services for the entire state are listed separately.
2. Use the State of Wisconsin map on the next page to find the county where you live.
3. Look for your county in the County Listing of Services (beginning on page 12) and find the type of service you need.
4. If the type of service you need is not available in your county, look in the pages for neighboring counties (see the state map).
5. Call one of the agencies listed and tell them what you need.
6. If the agency cannot help you with what you need, ask who you should call.
7. For assistance with adoption services, see the County Listing of Services (page 12) and the separate sections, Adoption Agencies Licensed by the State (page 215) and Adoption Agencies for Children with Special Needs (page 217).
8. For assistance with family planning services, see Family Planning Services (page 219).
9. For assistance with infant loss/grief services, see Perinatal Hospice and Palliative Care (page 240) and Resolve Through Sharing® (page 241).
10. See Other Government Programs and Protections (page 6) for descriptions of other government programs and legal protections.
11. Helpful Hotline Numbers (page 11) are available for information on services for pregnant women, children and families.

KEY TO TPES OF SERVICES LISTED IN THE DIRECTORY

I. COUNTY LISTING OF SERVICES

Abbreviations are used in the County Listing of Services and in this section to indicate the different types of agencies and services. The services and abbreviations are divided into four groups: pregnancy and childhood, adoption, children with disabilities, and sexual assault and incest. This section describes the different services and indicates the abbreviation that is used in the County Listing of Services.

A. Pregnancy and Childhood

■ HSS

Human service departments or social service departments are operated by local government and are available in every county. They provide a wide range of support and referral services for women and families during pregnancy and throughout childhood, such as:

- help with applications for many assistance programs,
- help in finding needed services during pregnancy,
- information on child development and parenting,
- help in finding needed childcare and other services, and
- help in screening families for stepparent adoptions.

■ LHD

Local health departments are operated by local government and are available in every county and in some of the larger municipalities. They provide a wide range of health and referral services for women and families during pregnancy and throughout childhood, such as:

- information on good eating habits and health practices during pregnancy,
- help in finding health and other services during pregnancy,
- child health check-ups and immunizations,
- information on child development and parenting, and
- help in finding child health care, childcare, and other services.

■ WIC

Women, Infants, and Children Supplemental Nutrition Program agencies are available in every county and some of the larger cities. They provide a variety of services for pregnant and breastfeeding women, new mothers, infants, and children up to age 5 years. Services include:

- nutrition screening and education, breastfeeding promotion and support,
- an eWIC card which can be used to buy nutritious foods, and
- help in finding needed health services and other services.

■ CommunProg

Community Programs include county departments of community programs and affiliated agencies, and are available in every county. County departments of community programs are responsible for making sure that county residents have mental health, substance abuse, and developmental disability services available to them, such as:

- inpatient and outpatient care and treatment,
- residential facilities,
- emergency care,
- supportive transitional services,
- community support programs.

KEY TO TPES OF SERVICES LISTED IN THE DIRECTORY

■ NFP

Natural family planning is a method of avoiding or achieving pregnancy, based on the knowledge of a woman's signs of fertility and infertility. NFP consultants are available in many counties to provide information about classes or individual training.

■ Preg/Child

There are many agencies in each county available to assist women and families during pregnancy and throughout childhood. These agencies offer a wide range of services for pregnant women, children, and families. The services can include:

- pregnancy testing and counseling,
- help in finding needed health and other services during pregnancy,
- help in finding needed child health services, childcare, or other services,
- information on child development and parenting,
- referral for financial assistance,
- prenatal care coordination, and
- referrals to appropriate health and community resources, e.g., WIC and health insurance.

■ W-2

Wisconsin Works is the replacement for the welfare program Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC). W-2 agencies are available in every county. Please see the Other Government Programs and Protections section for more information on the W-2 program.

■ PHC

There are many independent pregnancy help centers throughout the state whose primary purpose is to promote childbirth and provide alternatives to abortion. They do not provide abortion services or referrals for abortion and they do not promote abortion as a method of family planning. They offer a wide range of services. These services can include, but are not limited to:

- pregnancy counseling,
- pregnancy testing,
- assistance in getting prenatal and obstetrical medical care,
- fetal development information,
- referral to appropriate professional community resources,
- referral for financial assistance,
- assistance with locating housing,
- provision of layette, clothing, furniture and other goods,
- family counseling,
- child development information, and
- post-abortion counseling and support, when necessary.

■ MH

There are several maternity homes in the state. A maternity home is a licensed residential facility that offers services to pregnant women. These services may include, but are not limited to, the following: food and shelter during pregnancy, access to medical care before and after the birth of the child, and employment training or assistance to prepare her for independent living and care of her child after the child's birth. The home may also assist with adoption arrangements.

■ Ultrasound

Fetal ultrasound imaging and auscultation of fetal heart tone services are available to pregnant women who wish to use them. These ultrasound services enable a pregnant woman to view the image of her unborn child. Depending on the level of technology used and the stage of the woman's pregnancy, these services can also be used to enable a pregnant woman to hear the heartbeat of her unborn child. These services are usually available in many physicians' offices and hospitals. Eyewitness for Life, located in Milwaukee County (see Milwaukee County listing), offers free, confidential ultrasounds to any woman in the state who is referred by a Pregnancy Help Center (PHC).

■ ChildSupp

Child support agencies are available in every county. Please see the Other Government Programs and Protections section for more information on child support laws and programs.

B. Adoption

■ Adopt - Lic

There are adoption agencies licensed by the State. These are private agencies licensed by the Wisconsin Department of Children and Families to provide adoption counseling and help families with adoption placements. In addition to being included in the County Listing of Services, they are also listed separately under Adoption Agencies Licensed by the State.

■ Adopt-Spec

Adoption Agencies for Children with Special Needs are operated by adoption staff from the Department of Children and Families (DCF) regional offices, as well as private adoption agencies. They provide information and assistance with adoption for children with special needs. These are listed in the County Listing of Services and separately under Adoption Agencies for Children with Special Needs.

In addition, most county human or social services agencies screen families for stepparent adoptions.

C. Children with Disabilities

■ 0-3

Birth to 3 is an early intervention program for infants and toddlers (birth to age 3) with developmental delays, and is available in every county. Each county has a designated central point of access, a person who handles all referrals into the county program. This person provides general information to parents, other family members, and providers on the intake process and the services available through the Birth to 3 program.

■ COMMUNPROG

Community Programs include county departments of community programs and affiliated agencies, and are available in every county. County departments of community programs are responsible for ensuring that county residents have mental health, substance abuse, and developmental disability services available to them, such as:

- inpatient and outpatient care and treatment,
- residential facilities,

KEY TO TPES OF SERVICES LISTED IN THE DIRECTORY

- emergency care,
- supportive transitional services, and
- community support programs.

■ KB

The Katie Beckett program allows certain children with special health needs who live at home to obtain Wisconsin Medical Assistance coverage. Katie Beckett consultants are available in all counties to talk with families about what the program offers and program eligibility. Consultants can also help the family with the application materials.

■ CYSHCN

The Children and Youth with Special Health Care Needs program provides consultation, information and referral, and networking for families of children who have special health needs due to chronic illness or disability. CYSHCN agencies can assist with program referrals and providing services.

■ HSS

Human service departments or social service departments are operated by local government and are available in every county. They provide a wide range of support and referral services for children with chronic illnesses or disabilities, including:

- help with applications for many assistance programs,
- information on child development and parenting, and
- help in finding needed childcare and other services.

■ LHD

Local health departments are operated by local government and are available in every county and in some of the larger municipalities. They provide a wide range of health and referral services for children with chronic illnesses or disabilities, such as:

- help in finding needed health services and other services during pregnancy,
- child health check-ups and immunizations,
- information on child development and parenting, and
- help in finding child health services, childcare, and other services.

D. Sexual Assault and Incest

■ Assault

Sexual assault service agencies are available in many counties. If there is not one listed for a specific county, look in the neighboring counties. Sexual assault service agencies provide a wide range of sexual assault services, including:

- counseling for victims and survivors,
- legal and medical advocacy,
- a 24-hour crisis telephone line,
- community education, and other support services.

KEY TO TPES OF SERVICES LISTED IN THE DIRECTORY

II. ADOPTION AGENCIES LICENSED BY THE STATE

There are more than 20 private adoption agencies that are licensed by the Wisconsin Department of Children and Families. These agencies provide adoption counseling and help families with adoption placements.

III. ADOPTION AGENCIES FOR CHILDREN WITH SPECIAL NEEDS

Department of Children and Families (DCF) regional offices provide information and assistance with adoption for children with special needs.

IV. FAMILY PLANNING SERVICES

Family planning clinics are available to every county in the state. They provide a wide range of family planning and other reproductive health services for women and couples, such as:

- * a variety of medically-approved family planning methods,
- * sexually transmitted disease testing and treatment,
- * reproductive health screening, pregnancy testing, and early pregnancy care.

Natural family planning (NFP) is a scientifically based method of avoiding or achieving pregnancy, based on the knowledge of a woman's signs of fertility and infertility. NFP consultants are available in many counties to provide information about classes or individual training.

V. PERINATAL HOSPICE AND PALLIATIVE CARE

Perinatal Hospice programs are available through several hospitals in Wisconsin. They provide support for expectant parents whose baby has been diagnosed with a life-limiting condition and who choose to continue the pregnancy to term. Assistance and support may include end of life planning, palliative care and grief counseling. Programs also assist with coordinating services during the pregnancy, offering support during the delivery process and after the birth and providing hospice services in the home if the newborn lives beyond a few days. See page 240 for a listing of Perinatal Hospice and Palliative Care programs.

VI. RESOLVE THROUGH SHARING®

Resolve Through Sharing® programs are available through many hospitals in our state. They provide specialized grief support for families who have lost an infant due to miscarriage, stillbirth or early infant death. These programs help families to create memories of their child and offer one-on-one bereavement support. See page 241 for a listing of Resolve Through Sharing® programs. Hospitals not offering this specific program typically will offer similar grief support services for families.

VII. NATIONAL AND STATEWIDE AGENCIES

There are a variety of national and statewide organizations that can provide families with information, counseling, and referrals on specific illnesses, disabilities, and other health conditions. Contact your local health and human service agency or one of the hotline numbers listed on page 11 for additional information.

OTHER GOVERNMENT PROGRAMS AND PROTECTIONS

A. BadgerCare Plus

BadgerCare Plus is operated separately from Wisconsin Works (W-2), and persons may be eligible for BadgerCare Plus even if they are not eligible for W-2.

- Persons who may be eligible include children, birth to 19 years of age and pregnant women who meet income guidelines. The income guidelines for pregnant women and children are up to 300% of the Federal Poverty Level.
- Adults with income up to 100% of the Federal Poverty Level.
- BadgerCare Plus covers a broad range of medical services, including prenatal care, prenatal care coordination, and child health care.
- Applications for BadgerCare Plus and questions about eligibility for BadgerCare Plus can be directed to Income Maintenance Consortiums, W-2 agencies, or selected community health centers. This information is also available online at the ACCESS Web site, www.access.wisconsin.gov.
- Questions about BadgerCare Plus benefits (for people who are enrolled in BadgerCare Plus) can be directed to 1-800-362-3002 (voice and TTY).
- Questions about BadgerCare Plus for pregnant women and children and HealthCheck for children can be directed to 1-800-722-2295.
- Questions about BadgerCare Plus Health Maintenance Organization (HMO) enrollment can be directed to 1-800-291-2002.

B. Wisconsin Works (W-2)

Wisconsin Works is the welfare replacement program for Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) and is based on work participation. Under W-2, there is no entitlement to assistance, but there is a place for people who are willing to work to their abilities. The W-2 program is available to all parents with minor children, low assets, and low income. Each W-2 eligible participant meets with a Financial and Employment Planner (FEP), who helps the person develop a self-sufficiency plan and determine a place on the W-2 employment ladder. The following work options are available for a parent under W-2:

1. Unsubsidized Employment:

Individuals entering W-2 are always guided first to the best available, immediate job opportunity in the private sector. The agency matches every W-2 participant's capabilities with the best work options that are immediately available.

2. Trial Jobs (Subsidized Employment):

In certain circumstances where an individual approaches W-2 with a willing attitude but without a work background, transition to private employment is facilitated through a wage-subsidized trial job. Subsidized jobs provide a wage subsidy to the business to offset some of the costs of new employee training and supervision.

OTHER GOVERNMENT PROGRAMS AND PROTECTIONS

The W-2 trial job wage subsidy is a fixed amount and for a limited duration, three to six months for each trial job to a cumulative total of 24 months. Most trial jobs are expected to become permanent.

3. *Community Service Jobs:

Community Service Jobs (CSJs) are available for those who need to practice the work habits and skills necessary to be hired by a private business. CSJ work assignments are limited to six to nine months each. Participants may qualify for more than one CSJ work assignment, with a maximum total of 24 months of participation.

4. *W-2 Transition:

W-2 T (Transition) is the name of the program component for those who are unable to perform independent, self-sustaining work, even in a community service job. To receive cash benefits, W-2 T participants engage in work activities consistent with their capabilities (e.g., in community rehabilitation programs), and participate in other activities designed to move them toward greater work ability. These other activities include education and specialized skill training for people with developmental disabilities or treatment for those with substance abuse problems. Individualized plans are worked out between the W-2 agency and the participant.

Unlike those participating in CSJs, there is no defined time limit for participation in W-2 T assigned activities. However, the cumulative time limit for participation in W-2 T is 24 months, with extensions granted on a case-by-case basis. Extensions have to be determined necessary by the W-2 agency. Individuals determined eligible for entry into W-2 T receive cash assistance on a pay-for-performance basis, as long as they are participating in required activities and making reasonable progress.

- ◆ In addition there is support available through the W-2 program for qualifying pregnant women and caretakers of an infant:
  - Caretaker of an Infant: placements are for custodial parents of an infant who is eight weeks old or less; participants receive a monthly payment of $673 and are not required to participate in an employment position unless he/she volunteers to participate.
  - At Risk Pregnancy: placements are available to unmarried women in the third trimester of pregnancy who have a medically verified at-risk pregnancy; participants receive a monthly payment of $673 and are not required to participate in an employment position.

- ◆ Eligibility for W-2 work components (trial jobs, CSJs, and W-2 T) is limited to a total of 60 months (whether consecutive or not). Extensions may be available on a limited basis when barriers exist that prevent employment.

C. *Childcare Services

- Under Wisconsin's W-2 program, families with childcare needs may be eligible for childcare subsidies for children under age 13. To qualify for the subsidies, the parent must be working, family gross income must be equal to or less than 185% of the poverty level, and the W-2 asset standard must be met. Other eligibility standards apply.

OTHER GOVERNMENT PROGRAMS AND PROTECTIONS

- Once in the program, families may be allowed to continue until their income reaches 200% of the Federal Poverty Level.
- * Parents share in the cost of care on a sliding scale, depending on income; however, no parents will pay more than 12% of their gross income for childcare.
- * W-2 participants who want to become childcare providers can receive specialized training under this plan.

D. Child Support Laws and Programs

- The Child Support Program helps families become independent and remain self-sufficient by ensuring that all children are supported by both parents.
- * The program helps families by establishing paternity (legal fatherhood) and by locating absent parents.
- * It helps set up and enforce court-ordered child support orders and medical support orders.
- * Families who participate in Wisconsin Works (W-2) and BadgerCare Plus are automatically eligible to receive child support services. Other families may also be eligible.
- * County child support agencies provide assistance with child support services (see County Listing of Services - ChildSupp, in this Directory). The Bureau of Child Support in the Wisconsin Department of Children and Families can also be contacted directly at (608) 266-9909.

E. Exceptions to Establishing Paternity and Child Support

Good Cause Claim: There are a number of circumstances under which a Wisconsin Works (W-2) agency may find that a mother has "good cause" to oppose the establishment of paternity and to not cooperate in obtaining child and/or medical support. If a mother believes that she has "good cause," she should contact her W-2 agency. These circumstances may include:

- * The child was born as a result of incest or sexual assault.
- * A petition for adoption has been filed with a court, or the mother is working with an agency to make a decision about placement.
- * The mother's cooperation could result in physical or emotional harm to the child.
- * The mother's cooperation could result in physical or emotional harm to the mother or reduce the mother's ability to care for the child.

F. Termination of Parental Rights

A parent's rights to a child may be terminated in some circumstances. It may be possible to terminate a parent's rights because of:

- * child abuse,
- * child abandonment,
- * never having a substantial parental relationship with the child,
- * continued denial of child placement or visitation rights due to inadequate care of the child,

OTHER GOVERNMENT PROGRAMS AND PROTECTIONS

- * significant inpatient hospital or other residential care in certain facilities due to mental illness or developmental disability, or
- * a conviction of intentional or reckless homicide of the other parent.

Also, there are a number of circumstances under which a parent whose child was conceived as a result of incest or sexual assault may be able to terminate the other parent's rights (Wisconsin Stats. s.48.415). A parent may also be allowed to voluntarily terminate his or her parental rights in some circumstances (Wisconsin Stats. 48.41). For more information, parents should contact their county department of human services, county department of social services, or county court.

G. Family and Medical Leave

There are federal and Wisconsin family and medical leave acts that require that employers grant eligible employees unpaid, job-protected leave for specific purposes.

- * Reasons for leave may include childbirth; adoption; care of a child, spouse or parent with a serious health condition; and personal health conditions.
- * Employees may be able to substitute paid leave (such as vacation or sick leave) for the unpaid family or medical leave.
- * Employees can contact their employer's personnel department, their union office (if applicable), or the Wisconsin Department of Workforce Development, Equal Rights Division at (608) 266-6860 (in Milwaukee call (414) 227-4384) for more information.

H. Other Important Information

Women considering an abortion should be aware that:

- * It is unlawful for any person to coerce a woman to undergo an abortion.
- * Any physician who performs or induces an abortion without obtaining the woman's voluntary and informed consent is liable to her for damages in a civil action and is subject to a civil penalty.
- * The father of a child is liable for assistance in the support of the child, even in instances in which the father has offered to pay for an abortion.
- * Adoptive parents may pay the costs of prenatal care, childbirth, and neonatal care.
- * Fetal ultrasound imaging and auscultation of heart tone services are available to pregnant women who wish to use them. These services enable a pregnant woman to view the image of the unborn child. Depending on the level of technology used and the state of a woman's pregnancy, these services may enable a pregnant woman to hear the heartbeat.

I. Income Tax Supports

Tax Credits for Expenses for Household and Dependent Care and Services Necessary for Gainful Employment: Working parents who, in order to work or look for work, must pay for someone to care for dependent children may be eligible for a federal tax credit. This credit can be up to $2,100 and is only applied toward federal income taxes owed. Eligibility is based on earned income and the number of dependent children. For more information, contact the U.S. Internal Revenue Service (IRS) forms center at 1-800-829-3676 and request publication #503.

OTHER GOVERNMENT PROGRAMS AND PROTECTIONS

The Earned Income Credit is a refundable tax benefit designed to help low-income workers increase their financial stability. A parent may qualify for a refundable federal tax credit of up to $6,269 per year. The amount depends on the earned income of the parent and the number of dependent children claimed. For more information, contact the U.S. IRS at 1-800-829-3676 and request publication #596. The State of Wisconsin has a similar earned income credit of up to $2,131.46 (it is based on a percentage of the federal earned income credit). For more information on the state credit, see the Wisconsin Income Tax instruction booklet and tax forms. Public libraries also post announcements about income tax preparation assistance available from trained volunteers (VITA).

J. School Programs

Public schools provide a wide range of programs and services that support student learning (such as special education programs, school health services, health education, and school meals). Schools also provide early childhood programs for children, ages three through five years. Contact your community school for more information.
